

January 1 -- Genesis 1-3

God creates everything from nothing in six days and on the seventh He rests. He makes a man named Adam and then a mate for him – a woman named Eve. They disobey God’s simple instructions and receive the punishment of life in a fallen, cursed world and eventual death. God promises that a descendant of Eve will one day rescue humanity by crushing the head of the serpent.