

January 2 -- Genesis 4-7

The first descendants of Adam and Eve prove not to be the saviors of humanity. Cain kills Abel. Adam and Eve conceive another son, Seth, whose eventual descendant is Noah. Because of sin, God grieves that He made mankind and decides to send a world-wide flood to destroy all of creation. However, He changes His mind and decides to save Noah, his family, and the animals by instructing Noah to build an ark.
