

January 3 -- Genesis 8-11

The flood subsides, and God promises never again to punish the world in that way. He gives them the rainbow as a sign of the promise. Several generations are born to the sons of Noah. Some of them decide to build a tower in Babel, but God comes down, frustrates their plans, scatters the people, and causes them to speak different languages.