

January 18 -- Exodus 1-3

All the sons of Jacob pass away and with that their sons, daughters, and their families lose the privilege Joseph had given them. The Egyptians enslave them and try to prevent them from having sons. Moses, a descendant of Levi, is born and raised in Pharaoh's court. God hears the misery of his enslaved people and calls Moses at the burning bush to rescue them out of slavery.