

January 21 -- Exodus 10-12

The LORD continues the plagues with locust and darkness and then the greatest plague – the death of every firstborn Egyptian. During this plague, the Israelites eat the LORD's Passover and are told to celebrate it then on every year to remember when the LORD delivered them from slavery.