

January 22 -- Exodus 13-15

Pharaoh and his army go after the Israelites when they leave Egypt. The Israelites come to the Red Sea and the LORD parts the waters so they can cross on dry ground. As soon as they are on the other side, the waters rush back in and drown the Egyptians. They celebrate. Three days later, in the desert with no water, the Israelites begin to grumble against Moses and the LORD.