

January 25 -- Exodus 22-24

Moses gives more laws, including a law that the firstborn is to be dedicated to the LORD on day 8, which Jesus' parents observed in Luke 2. Many laws are given for the treatment of aliens or immigrants because the Israelites themselves were aliens or immigrants in Egypt. Then Moses sprinkles "the blood of the covenant" on the people, and they see God and eat and drink with Him on Mt. Sinai.
