

January 26 -- Exodus 25-27

The LORD gives instructions to build the tabernacle, the place where He will dwell. He tells Moses to gather the materials from anyone whose heart is moved to give. At the end of 27, the LORD commands that the lamps of the temple are never to go out, because God is Light and his dwelling is the Light of the world.